TALKED OF TEACHERS

Then the Board of Education Employed a Lot.

THE SUPERINTENDENT'S SALARY

Was Increased to $1,900 a Year and the High School Teachers Were Given a Raise—One Experienced Teacher For Each Room May Be Employed, Even If They Do Come High—A Meeting Without Dissension.

At the meeting of the board of education last evening a large number of teachers were elected and the salaries of Superintendent Sanor, Miss Updegraff and Miss McVay were increased.

All the members were in their places last night when President Smith asked Secretary Nellis to read the minutes, and the account of the last meeting was found to be correct. The report of the commencement was read and showed the presence of $202.50 from the sale of tickets, with expenses at $96.25, including the bill for musical instruction by Professor Gottschall. The balance of $106.25 was accepted by the board on the motion of Mr. Owen, and the clerk asked what should be done with it. Mr. Smith expressed the belief that the money was to be turned over to the high school library, but as no formal action had been taken this was embodied in the motion, and it was passed unanimously. A bill from E. Barret & Son for books to be used in the enumeration by George Grosshans was ordered paid, and the matter of electing teachers for the coming year was brought out. The preliminary was a report from Superintendent Sanor, in which he showed that 23 applicants had been examined, and 12 had passed the required standard. In a report he explained that some applicants had secured grades that would give them more than one year certificates, but as the rule required them to have experience and they had recently been graduated, nothing further could be done. Under the new rule granting examinations in higher branches several teachers had been examined, and made a good showing. The superintendent was in favor of electing and placing the teachers at once, but President Smith believed it would be time if they were placed at another meeting. This started an argument which brought out the fact that the board wanted to employ East Liverpool teachers as far as possible, giving them every advantage the law would allow. Mr. Sanor explained that all the applicants who had failed would be given another trial, and had so been notified by him. His main object in having the teachers elected at this time was to let them know what they were to do, and not leave it until the end of the summer, for confusion would surely follow. Mr. Golding asked if good teachers could be secured for the $27 a month paid by the board, and thereby swung the argument into another channel.

Mr. Sanor said that his idea regarding the schools, now that a favorable opportunity presented, was to get a trained teacher in each building. By that, he explained, he wanted a teacher educated in a normal course in each grade. By this all the others would profit, and as he especially desired to build up the schools, he could see no better and more economical system. With a teacher of this kind at each of the grade meetings new ideas would be brought into the schools, and would spread among those who had not been blessed with these advantages. It would require five of them at least, and he had been corresponding with some, only to discover that they ranged in price from $35 to $50 per month. He had no favorable replies to the $35 inquiry, and thought at $50 it would be a paying investment.

The plan did not meet with general approval at first, but as the superintendent talked, it could easily be seen the board were being won over to his side. The only objection in employing the new teachers was the throwing out of others who had failed to pass the examination but were in position to go through at the next test; when this was explained away by the statement that there would be room and to spare for all, Mr. Owen moved they elect the teachers, and Mr. Golding seconded it, the understanding being that the board and Superintendent Sanor would assign them to positions.

At this point Mr. Taylor brought out the question of raising the salary of Miss Flo Updegraff from $60 to $80 and continue the $10 she is already receiving for keeping the books, making $90 in all. The vote when taken showed that all favored the motion except Mrs. Whitehead, who believed that anyone capable of occupying so responsible a position was worth $100 a month. Mr. Taylor also brought forward the salary of Miss McVay, the assistant who was now receiving only $50 a month. She had an opportunity at $75, but would stay in Liverpool for $600 for the school year. Mr. Owen seconded the motion, and during the remarks Mr. Sanor paid the ladies a high compliment, and Mr. Taylor also praised their abilities. The vote was unanimous, and the question of increasing Professor Sanor's salary appeared. He had been elected for three years, and the salary fixed at $1800 a year, with the understanding that it should be increased if his services were valuable. Mr. Owen asked if the salary could be raised, and was promptly informed that it could. Mr. Taylor looked upon the matter as the duty of the board, but believed the body should look at it wisely. Mr. Owen suggested that they might lay it over for a week, when Mr. Sanor offered to retire if they desired to deliberate.

"Do you want more?" asked Mr. Smith.

"I never ask for an increase," replied the superintendent; "but I usually get it after the first year."

Mr. Golding moved the salary be fixed at $1,800 as formerly, and the clerk seconded. The opinions expressed showed the board wanted to grant an increase, but the condition of finances at present was such as to make retrenchment a necessity. All the members spoke highly of the superintendent, but there was that matter of economy in sight. At length Mr. Sanor arose and said:

"There is no city in Ohio where a superintendent is called upon to do the work required here. They have as a rule a male principal, in places at every building, and often a superintendent of the primary department. No other city pays a salary lower and only one other as low, while none exact the work required in East Liverpool. The position is really worth $2,500 a year, but of course I will be satisfied. I do not care particularly about the money, but there are other features which go to make up a great part of a superintendent's reputation."

Mr. Owen—I believe it is the lack of money, Mr. Sanor, and not the lack of appreciation which makes this hesitancy.

At this point Mr. Taylor amended the motion by adding $100 to the salary, and it passed, unanimously making Mr. Sanor's compensation $1,900 a year. He thanked the board for this appreciation of his services, and the teachers were elected as follows:

Misses Annie Myers, Clara Beale, Clara Williams, Ida Agner, May Bowers, Laura Conkie, Isabelle Little, Annie Austin, Florence Jessop, Mary A. Smith, Flora Hale, Jessie Manley, Bertha McVay, Flo Updegraff, Martha Caliebe, Cora Swaney, Mary Buchannon, Maude Fisher, Maggie Roach, Clara M. Gardner, Effie Knowles, Mary M. Jackman, Annie M. Thompson, Nora Beale, Lucy Moore, Maude Dawson, Lizzie Griggs, Miss Croft, Mrs. Hayes, Mrs. Bentley, Mrs. Shannon and Mrs. Edwards. Superintendent Sanor was given permission to correspond with trained teachers with a view to employing five, and the question of dedicating the new building came up. After it developed that a flag staff was in the contract it was decided to let the arrangements go over until the next meeting, and the board adjourned. There is no doubt that the board favor elaborate exercises.

SETTLED ON SUMS.

A Jury in Probate Court Decided the Fourth Street Matter.

SPECIAL TO NEWS REVIEW.
LISBON, June 11.—The appropriation case of East Liverpool against the property owners on the proposed Fourth street extension heard the case in probate court today and awarded to Golding & Sons, $657.23; William E. Curry $130; Mrs. Thompson $826; John M. Aten $1,800; Davidson heirs $100; Specialty Glass company $652; Colonel Hill and William Brunt $1,000; Cleveland & Pittsburg company, $5. There was but one witness examined, and the case was soon decided.

GONE TO THE WALL.

An Insurance Company Has Passed Away.

Word has reached the city that the Commonwealth Mutual Insurance company has gone to the wall, and the stockholders have thrown up their shares in despair. A receiver has been appointed, and the old line agents wear a smile when they think of it. The commonwealth made a big bid for pottery business, and got along very well, being represented in the city by several $5,000 lines. They dealt in risks at a small price, and could not stand the expense.

BROWN WAS WEALTHY

And He Gave Money to the Boys By the Dollar.

DIFFERENCE ABOUT A DRINK

The Accused Thought He Swallowed the Stuff At Hamill's, But a Witness Believed It Was At Coulson's—Conflicting Testimony, But John Was Bound Over.

John Brown, who is accused of taking $24 from the pocket of John Slack, of Franklin Square, on April 21, when that individual was so drunk he can remember only a portion of the happening, was bound to the grand jury by Mayor Gilbert, and in default of $500 bond will be entertained at Lisbon.

The accused was without shoes and coat, and seemed warm when John Slack, the prosecuting witness, was called. Slack said he was drunk when he met Brown, and could not remember just what happened, but he did recall that they had been drinking together, and Brown took him to Rinehart's stable.

Forrest Groff, a boy, saw Brown put a man in a wagon on this occasion, and turn him over, fumbling around him. He did not see Brown take any money, but when he came out of the stable he gave the witness and his brother each a dollar, and told them to saw hay.

Emor Groff, the brother, also saw the action, but did not see Brown take the money. Brown ordered him and the other boys out of the barn, and he heard silver rattle, and saw a pocket book.

The mayor—Could you see everything that was going on?

Groff—Yes, unless there was something going on I couldn't see.

Frank Cain was passing the Washington House after the happening when Brown came out and said "Here's a dollar, go blow yourself." The witness was certain he had never been so liberal before, but explained the circumstance by thinking him drunk.

Dick Green chanced to be near the stable, and was invited to the Duby by Brown to have a drink. He did not believe Brown had more than $1.75 at this time. Brown, however, told him that he had $11, and he remembered they had often been together, and he thought Brown sometimes had lots of money for a poor man. At this point John Rinehart, who was an interested spectator, asked Green if he did not remember telling him that Brown had confessed to him, but Green stuck to his statement.

Bert Allison saw Lyman Rinehart drive out of the barn on this occasion, and heard him tell Brown to put the inebriated Slack in his wagon, as he was in danger of being arrested. He saw Brown do the charitable act, but saw him take no money. Then he borrowed a nickel from Charles Weaver to take a street ride, and went over to the Washington House to get a shine, and afterward learned that some one had been "touched." Brown had money that day, he and the witness having been paid for work at the West End pottery. He explained the borrowing a nickel by saying that he often borrowed when he had money for fear he might run "shy." He and Brown drank at Coulson's, and tried to get their checks cashed at John Peake's and at Hamill's, but got no drink at Hamill's. Brown had $5 or more. Witness asked Rinehart to advance a dollar on his check, and acknowledged that it was before he knew he would get a check.

Brown was not the prettiest picture in the world as he said: "I came by Rinehart's and saw Slack making a stagger to get up. Lyme told me to put him in the wagon, and Ed Buchheit helped me carry him back. I gave the boys money because we had a few buckets of beer in the barn, and I did not want Rinehart to know anything about it. I had $7.03 and Allison and I went to Hamill's where we drank, but we did not drink at Coulson's. Yes, I have had money from the boys at different times, but never got a dollar. I never drank with Slack in Hancock's or any other saloon. I never walked half a square with him. Slack was drunk; he didn't know anything. Lyme took a bottle of whiskey off Slack and gave it to Jack Sharpe. Mrs. Coulson does not sell liquor to me. Yes, we drank at Hamill's. I had the big end of $4 when I went home.

The mayor—Don't you suppose your wife and family wanted some of that money?

Brown—Yes, but they didn't get any. I told Green I had $11 because I thought it was none of his business.

Edward Bucheit—I saw Brown when he had the man in Rinehart's and Brown rolled over him. Afterward he put him in a wagon, Slack fighting him. The next morning Brown came to me, and asked if I heard anything. He said he gave the boys money to keep quiet, and then told me all about the robbery. He wanted me to keep still, he said.

Jack Sharpe remembered seeing Brown bring Slack in the door at Rinehart's and it was "nip and tuck" which one could stand. Rinehart did not give me a bottle of whisky."

As the conflicting evidence produced by the defense showed a doubt in the matter, and Ruchheit's statement was plain and without denial, the prisoner was bound over.

Brown was taken to Lisbon this morning in company with James Dorf, who got $10 and costs for firing that post at the railroad.

PAID FOR UNIFORMS.

Claims Committee Puts Up Half the Amount.

At the meeting of claims committee last night the bill for the new uniforms now being worn by the policemen was presented, amounting to $110, and $60 of it was ordered paid, that being the cost of the coats. It will be remembered the police were ordered to have a certain style collar and objected at which time the News Review stated that council would be asked to pay a part of the bill. The committee persisted in the demand, and the policemen were firm. The bill came from the tailor for the full amount, but only the coats were paid for. It was also decided that Chief Adam should give the committee a bill for each man in the department. The following bills were paid:

John Ryan, $4.50; Aaron McDonald, $32.31; Richard Nagle, $35.25; J. W. Finley, $34.50; Alex Bryan, $34.50; Tom Bryan, $34.50; William Welch, $50; T. S. McCready, $11.13; M. B. Adam, $110; Robert Hall, $9.33; Ferguson & Hill, $3.25; Union planing mill, $19.56; W. E. Cooper, $37.02; J. M. Stewart, $4; Frank Welch, $13; H. C. Morley, $1.50; Knowles Taylor & Anderson, $2.80; W. B. Faulk, $3; H. C. Morley, $50; Jas McCullough, $50; Joshua Curfman, $50; Frank Swaney, $9.60; Charles Bright, $25; Isaac Shemp, $2.03; J. T. King, $50; C. B. Ogden, $30.75; News Review company, $30.46; Wm G. Johnston & Co., $7.35; John A. George, $101.25; C. Metsch, $5.45; I. P. Farmer, $7; Crosser, Ogilvie company, $6.50; Ed A. King, $33.14; A. H. Clark, $120; S. C. Williams, $9; Thomas Pierce, $60; Charles Gill, $55; H. H. Meador, $49; Frank Earle, $49; William Jennings, $49; John Whan, $43.75; E. D. McMillan, $49; A. V. Gilbert, $19.25; Jury and witness fees in Timothy Burns case $30.75; Charles Gill $30.88.

The following communication was referred to council:

GENTLEMEN:—Having discovered that my claim, acted upon at your last meeting, was one for $414.80, being 10 per cent of $4,148.02, which amount I supposed had been received by the city on account of Dow tax of June, 1893, and former years, and that the sum actually received was $4,250.85, I now hand an amended claim for $426.08, and respectfully ask that a vote be taken upon it at your meeting tomorrow, Tuesday, evening, June 11. I am, gentlemen, very respectfully,

JOHN SANT.

STRUCK THE OFFICER.

An Exciting Scene on Sixth Street Last Night.

Cliff Dawson, residing at 281 Fourth street, was drunk in the alley near the opera house on Sixth street last night, and Officer Earle chanced to see the performance. The man was arrested and then raising his fists struck viciously at the officer. Not wishing to grapple with him, and together they went down rolling around Sixth street while a great crowd gathered. At length the officer's great strength told and Dawson was glad enough to walk to jail. The crowd followed, and Market street was black with people. The officer only charged him with being drunk and disorderly and he was fined $6.60.

A TEST CASE.

Thomas Nelson Will Try the Liquor Law in Court.

Thomas Nelson, one of the men captured in the McFadden saloon when Officer Earle decided it was open after hours, will make a test case against him. He will have a hearing on Friday afternoon, and if convicted all the others will plead guilty. The panel of the jury is as follows: John Myers, John Davidson, Charles Birkett, J. A. McBane, Jethro Manley, Jr., A. W. King, John Grant, Jos. Deidrick, William Glenn, William Barker, Henry Reark, Joseph Beardmore, Smith Fowler, H. S. Goodwin, David Boyce.

LIKE THE ARAB OF OLD

Did a Butcher Fold His Tent and Move.

GOODS SHIPPED FROM THE FERRY

People Would Not Settle With Him For Meat, and He Desired to Avoid Complications—Will Endeavor To Pay It All.

L. T. McCready, well known in the city as a butcher and an employee of the Mears cask factory, folded his tent like the Arab and silently stole away this morning, crossing the line into Pennsylvania about five o'clock. The man has been unfortunate in having sold beef to people who forget that butchers must be paid for their meat, and he had several hundred dollars out in bad debts. This made his financial condition unenviable, and he decided to take what little capital he had and start anew in another state, hoping to realize enough from the investment to pay his old debts. He hired Andrew Rat-tray and James Johnson to move his household effects early this morning, and when the sun was peeping over the hill they were in Smith's Ferry, ready to ship the effects to Newport News, in Virginia, where he will open a restaurant. This quiet method of moving will prevent the little formality of suits and attachments which "Dock" seemed anxious to avoid. He confided his cares before leaving to the teamsters, and his creditors will learn it with regret.

THEY SERENADED

And Then Enjoyed Themselves With H. A. McNicol's at the Club.

Last night Manley's band, the Buckeye club and others formed in line in the Diamond and with the usual equipment of horsehiddles, horns, bells and other instruments of torture, marched to the present residence of H. A. McNicol and bride on Seventh street. The principal features of the march were the fine music rendered by the band, the display of red fire and the clever work of "Bony" Moore in the capacity of drum major. At several points along the line he was taken for the wielder of the baton in Sousa's band and was showered with large and beautiful bouquets. So intent was he with his difficult feats that he failed to stop at the destination of the crowd and was captured only after a long chase to the Jethro trestle, through the fear that Wellsville would recognize his ability and claim him as her own. After congratulations had been showered upon Mr. McNicol and his handsome bride, the party was addressed in a neat speech by W. V. Blake and were later entertained at the rooms of the Buckeye club. Speeches by Mr. Blake and Squire Manley were responded to by Messrs. McNicol and Moore, who coincided with the squire in his advice to all old bachelors to get married without delay. Mr. Moore was charged with sending the happy groom a patent medicine circular and would no doubt have been lynched by the crowd had not he turned their indignation into delight by a soul stirring bass drum selection, accompanied by the band. The crowd enjoyed refreshments and cigars and lingered until almost dawn.

THE GUN WENT OFF.

Farmer Moore Was Shot in the Foot.

J. L. Moore, a well known farmer residing near West Point, went hunting yesterday and on the way stopped to talk with a neighbor. Without knowing that the hammer was raised, he rested the gun on his foot, and continued the conversation until the gun was discharged, sending a bullet through his foot. He was painfully hurt, but no serious results are anticipated, as the wound is not large. Mr. Moore is well known in East Liverpool.

THE SAFE IS LOCKED.

Harrison Rinehart Wants Someone to Return His Keys.

For some time Harrison Rinehart has been missing articles of more or less value from his stable, among them being some brushes and a whip. Recently he found that his bunch of keys had been stolen, and he could not get into his safe. The keys are valuable to no one except the owner, but he wants them as much as he can want anything. There is no clue for Rinehart to follow in spite of his vigilance.

Another Doctor Hurt.

Doctor Marshall, of East End, attempted to emulate Doctor Foot in the art of cycling last night and almost succeeded. He is carrying his arm in a sling today and it is badly sprained.

WATCH the indicator at the top of the wheel, and you will see signs of a Republican victory in Ohio this year.

WHAT is the matter with a gentleman from Chillicothe named Lawrence T. Neal being the Democratic candidate for governor? If we remember right he has had some experience in the candidate business.

THE convention of Republican clubs to be held in Cleveland will be an event to which all the presidential candidates will look with anticipation. These young fellows, so ardently despised a few years ago, have shown that they are fighters from the ground up.

A DEMOCRATIC TEMPEST.

Only a few weeks ago the Democratic press was filled with column accounts of the awful tempest in the Republican ranks, and the English language was stretched to its last resort to provide words enough to carry on the conflict. How they revelled in sensational accounts of the big knife Governor McKinley had in his toga for Governor Foraker, and how they smiled over the bowie the Cincinnati statesman had concealed in his boot, waiting for an opportunity to stick the great protectionist. It was a sweet morsel, and the Democrats rolled it around with that old time smile of placid satisfaction. But the boot is on the other foot now. They have a fight of their own, and it is not a puny, little thing, either. Young Thurman, believing he is as much of a man as the old Roman, has broken loose. For days his free silver nonsense has been filling his chosen organs, and the politician has been inciting long winded editorials about the early date on which the convention should be held. Brice has heard of it, and lost no time in having the state chairman sit on him. Then he met Campbell, Sork and McLean in Cincinnati, and they talked it all over, but the only remarkable point about this is that the owner of the free silver Enquirer should be found among such a rabid crowd of gold bugs.

Then there is another chance for a fight. Brice, Sork and McLean have barrels. Not one would turn down the chance to be senator. Campbell not having money is out of the senatorial race, and only wants a chance to be beaten by Bushnell. If the three big bosses can decide which man is to be made senator the others can roll out the gold, and help his cause along. If, on the other hand, there is to be a battle, this will be an interesting time for the ward heaters and bosses. Colonel Brice never had like to be beaten; Mr. Sork has not been in politics long enough to know what a good thing it is for the other fellow, and John R. McLean is not the individual to sulk in his tent if he can get anything out of it. With the Enquirer in Cincinnati spouting free silver and the Journal in New York howling for gold, McLean seems to have straddled the position well enough to suit his party. He is an old campaigner, and if no terms are made with the colonel, there are reasons for believing that the battle will be a conflict to which the trouble with Thurman is only a little breeze.

ing."

CAMERON NEEDS AID.

Many Families Destitute and Homeless From the Fire.

THE MAYOR APPEALS FOR HELP.

Over $300,000 Worth of Property Was Destroyed and 28 Families Are Without Homes—Fifty-Two Buildings Burned.
People Preparing to Rebuild.

WHEELING, June 11.—The little town of Cameron, W. Va., which was almost wiped out of existence by fire Sunday night and yesterday, the property loss being over $300,000, with insurance only $50,000, appeals to the outside world for aid for the numerous destitute and homeless families in the following from Mayor Richardson of that town:

"Having sustained a loss by fire of the greatest magnitude of any city of equal population in the county, making homeless 28 families and laying in ashes $300,000 worth of property, we appeal to the charitable people throughout the county for funds with which to provide for the suffering of our town."

The standing property of the town was probably worth $150,000, and the latest itemized list of the losses footed over $300,000. The insurance is but a drop in the bucket—only $50,000, of which $30,000 is in three Wheeling companies.

Fifty-two houses were burned when the fire finally spent itself. Of these 28 were dwelling houses, and the balance business houses.

The fire started in Fitzgerald's livery stable, and in 10 minutes had communicated to the buildings on both sides of the street, and was then beyond control. Though the loss to the town is almost complete, the spirit of the place is that of a miniature Chicago. Already builders are here from Wheeling, and several business men are preparing to rebuild. One firm sent in an order to a Wheeling jobber for $1,000 worth of goods. The homeless families are being cared for by those who were fortunate enough to be outside the path of the fire.

A Bering Sea Bill.

LONDON, June 11.—The house of commons has assembled. The parliamentary secretary for the foreign office, Sir Edward Grey, has introduced a bill to regulate the catching of seals in Bering sea. In so doing, he explained that the bill was designed to replace the act passed in 1893, to carry out the agreement with Russia, and that there would be a few alterations. The bill passed its first reading.

Left to Pastors' Consciences.

GRAND RAPIDS, June 11.—The general synod of the Reformed Church in America considered an overture from the synod of New Jersey, recommending the exclusive use of fermented wine in the communion service. After a spirited discussion the question was left to the consciences of the pastors of the different churches, and all reference to the subject was stricken from the minutes.

Astronomer Barnard to Resign.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 11.—Prof. E. E.
Barnard, the famous astronomer of Lick observatory, has presented his resignation to the board of regents of the University of California, to take effect next October. It is understood that Prof. Barnard will accept a similar position at the University of Chicago.

Carlisle Changes His Date.

LOUISVILLE, June 11.—In deference to Senator Lindsay, who speaks next Thursday night at Frankfort, Ky., Secretary Carlisle has decided to deliver his Louisville speech on "Sound Money" next Friday night, June 14.

Four Men Drowned.

MILWAUKEE, June 11.—George Richards, mate of the schooner Mable Wilson, has received a dispatch from a son of Captain Blackburn, at Oswego, announcing the foundering of a yacht and the loss of his father and three others.

OHIO MINERS ACCEPT.

A Majority Vote to Accept the Operators' Terms.

COLUMBUS, June 11.—The vote of the Ohio miners as to whether they would accept or reject the proposition of the operators to pay 51 cents for screened coal per ton for mining resulted: For acceptance, 5,091; against, 4,351. Majority 740.

The state miners' officials say in their circular to the miners of Ohio:
"You will thus see that the provisional agreement made between the operators and your delegates on June 1, 1895, has been ratified and accepted by the popular vote of the district. This makes the agreement valid. Locals will govern themselves accordingly, and will resume work under the provisions of said agreement."

"It must be borne in mind that, distasteful as the terms of this agreement are, we have hopes of its being only temporary. It is only binding in so far as the circumstances continue which forced its acceptance. If these circumstances change, which we are in hope of, we expect that better terms will be within our probabilities are long."

A Negro Nearly Lynched.

DEFIANCE, O., June 11.—A small riot has occurred in this city, which came ending in a lynching. A colored fellow by the name of Elmer Prator, a local pugilist, became intoxicated and started a saucy fight, which was soon entered into by a dozen drunken Irishmen, who became so enraged that they chased the negro over half the city, shouting: "Kill the nigger; lynch him." A rope was secured, and the hunted man was caught on a porch on Ferry street, where he was dragged out and terribly beaten, and would undoubtedly have been lynched without further ceremony had not a platoon of police put in an appearance and succeeded, after a lively struggle, in getting possession of the frightened negro, and locking him up.

To Speak at the Convention.

CLEVELAND, June 11.—James H.
Hoyt of this city, one of the most brilliant afterdinner speakers in Ohio, has been selected as toastmaster for the great banquet at the convention of the National Republican League. "Cham-berlayne" Depew has been chosen as chief orator. It is expected that Governor McKinley and ex-Governor Foraker will be able to attend the banquet, although there is still some uncertainty about it.
Hon. J. J. Ingalls, Hon. C. B. Burrows of Michigan, Hon. H. Clay Evans of Tennessee and Hon. John M. Thurston of Omaha are among the other speakers.
D. D. Woodmansee will deliver a speech on behalf of the league.

Steel Too Ill to Be Tried.

CLEVELAND, June 11.—It is probable that Horace Steele, the aged president of the Farmers' bank, which was wrecked by Ralph Paige, the brother-in-law of David R. Paige, now an exile in Argentine Republic, will never be brought to trial. He and Ralph Paige were indicted together and the latter was sent to the penitentiary. A few months ago Paige was pardoned. Steele's case has been hanging fire on account of his health and his old age, he being 75 years old. A physician appointed by the criminal court has reported to the judge that it would be un-justifiably cruel to place the old man on trial in view of his physical and mental condition.

Molders to Meet in Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, June 11.—It is officially announced that the international convention of the Iron Molders' union will be held in this city, commencing July 10. It was originally voted to hold the meeting in Chicago, but for various reasons it has been decided to make the change as stated above. Vice President Valentine intimated that the big molders' strike, which was expected to take place here this week, had been postponed until after the convention.

scued were insensible when reached by a rescuing party. Bentz's body has not been recovered.

MISSIONS DESTROYED.

Confirmation of the Attack on Foreigners in China.

NO MISSIONARIES MANSCARED.

At Least Later Reports Do Not Confirm This Part of Yesterday's Dispatches—The Legation at Washington Has Received No News—List of Missionaries.

SHANGHAI, June 11.—The report of the total destruction of the missions at Cheng Tu, Kiating and Yenchowu has been confirmed. The local officials refused protection to the missionaries until the mob had completed the work of demolishing the buildings.

The mission stations at other places have been threatened. About 20 adults, besides a number of children, have taken refuge at Cheng Tu and Yamen.
Viceroy Lin is blamed for the affair.

A Washington special says: "Chinese legation has received no information as to the reported massacre of all missionaries in Cheng Tu, and strong hopes are entertained that the affair may be less serious than the meager reports indicate. It is stated at the legation that Cheng Tu is a large city in the interior of China. The people are far removed from the centers of foreign commerce, such as Canton and Shanghai. Recently, however, by the treaty of peace with Japan this interior city was one of several places to be opened to foreigners and foreign commerce. This no doubt, it is explained, has agitated the people who have lived by themselves from time immemorial."

A New York special says: The officials of the Methodist Missionary society in this city are very hopeful that the report of a massacre of the missionaries at Cheng Tu, has been exaggerated.

Dr. Stephen J. Baldwin, the recording secretary, said, "I do not think that these rumors are subsequent to assurance we received by cable from our mission in Cheng Tu, under date of June 3. The cable read: 'Property destroyed; all safe; inform Toronto.' This would indicate that all our people are safe, although the property has been destroyed."

The missionaries who are at Cheng Tu are Rev. H. Olin Cady and his wife, H. L. Cartwright, M. D., and wife, Rev.
F. F. Peat and wife, Rev. J. O. Curlew and wife, Rev. Dr. H. V. C. Hart, formerly of the Central China mission, and several of his associates of this Canadian Methodist church.

BLOOD STAINS THE MANSION.

A Labor Riot at Armour's New House in Chicago.

CHICAGO, June 11.—Blood has stained the beautiful marble entrance to the $1,000,000 mansion now being erected by P. D. Armour, Jr., at the southwest corner of Thirty-seventh street and Michigan avenue.

A handful of non-union painters who have been at work on the interior of the building were attacked by a party of union men, and a desperate conflict raged for fully five minutes. Finally, when peace was restored, four non-union men were led away to a neighboring drugstore to have their broken heads patched up. One of them, Adam Beyer, was so weak from loss of blood that he could hardly walk.

The injured are: Adam Beyer, cut on top of head and right eye half goned out; William Biss, struck on left temple with an iron tool, making a severe gash. Two other men thrown down a flight of stairs and both received severe cuts and bruises.

Coleman, the 14-year old daughter of William Coleman of Osterville, while killed by Henry Laddie, a German, who next fired two shots at a little brother of the girl who was with her. Laddie then shot himself through the head and died instantly. The murderer was employed as a farm hand by Simon Leonard and had been paying attentions to the little girl.

The Columbia's Fast Trip.

been received at the navy department from an officers on board the Columbia, saying that the vessel made an excel-whole day, because a cyclone was feared, and her commander did not wish to have her under a press of steam in a heavy storm.

Trenton Potters May Strike.

TRENTON, June 11.—All of the ten sanitary potteries in this city have shut down, and their 500 workmen have been in secret conference, deciding upon a new scale of wages to be demanded of the employers. The men decided to ask for an average increase of 20 per cent over the wages they are now receiving. If the employers refuse to partment.

DROUIN LIKELY TO DIE.

The Eccentric Millionaire Suffering From One of His Numerous Escapades.

ATLANTIC CITY, June 11.—Edward Drouin, the eccentric millionaire, lies seriously and perhaps fatally ill at his Rhode Island avenue cottage as a result of one of his recent wild escapades.
About ten days ago he returned home in the early hours of the morning and was much incensed at finding the doors locked against him.

Without waiting for them to be opened, he drove his fist through two thick glass window panes with disastrous effect to himself. The shattered glass severed an artery in his right wrist and the timely arrival of a physician alone saved Drouin from bleeding to death.

He apparently recovered and was able to be up and about until three days is feared the lockjaw may develop at any moment. Two physicians are in constant attendance.

TO PATROL THE COAST

U. S. Cruiser Will Be Sent to Key West.

THE FILIBUSTERING MUST STOP.

The Administration Intends to Allow No Aid Sent From This Country to the Cuban Rebels—The Recent Successful Expedition Hastened Action.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—The administration has decided that a United States vessel of war should be sent to Key West for the purpose of co-operating with the revenue cutters, in watching for filibustering expeditions leaving that and other places in Florida to aid the Cuban insurgents. This decision was reached just before Secretary Herbert's departure for Alabama, and he concluded the Raleigh should be used for the purpose. The latter vessel is now at New York.

Orders are expected to be sent to her commander immediately to repair for the voyage, and it is probable before many days she will be on her way to Key West. The news of the departure of a filibustering expedition from Key West, published in the newspapers, probably hastened the action in the matter on the part of the government, and it is probable that the representations which are understood to have been made by Senor de Loma, the Spanish minister here on the subject have also had considerably weight.

REV. SHELDRAKE CONFESSES.

He Attacks Ministers For Violating Their Agreement With Him.

CINCINNATI, June 11.—A local paper prints an interview with Rev. George Sheldrake, the Presbyterian revivalist who is charged by the Pittsburg presbytery with living with a woman not his wife. In this interview the reverend gentleman confessed that the woman he is living with as his wife is not his wife; that he separated from his real wife about four years ago, but had not obtained a divorce. The woman he is living with has been his housekeeper. His real wife, he says, is doing newspaper work in Chicago.

He says he made a full confession to the officers of the Presbytery under a solemn pledge that they would keep the matter secret. He charges these officers with violating confidence in divulging this confession.

TORNADO IN OKLAHOMA.

PERRY, O. T., June 11.—A tornado has visited the section 20 miles west of here. Twenty or more houses are said to have been blown down, and several people are hurt, a Mrs. Hammer, a widow, fatally. A Reservoir May Burst.

DENVER, June 11.—State Engineer Sumner has gone to Monument in response to urgent telegrams notifying him that the Monument reservoir dam appeared to be unsafe. A break occurred in the dam and a large force of men was put to work on the repairs, and it is now believed the dam can be saved. The reservoir covers 72 acres, and should the dam go out a rich agricultural valley below would be swept by the rushing waters for many miles, doing great damage to life and property.

Choate's Big Fee.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Fifteen thousand dollars was the fee received by Joseph H. Choate for his services in securing the annulment of the income tax law by the supreme court, according to a gentleman who was engaged in the case, and who knows all its history. The story that Mr. Choate's fee was $100,000, which has now become magnified on its rounds to $200,000, was simply a piece of imaginative work.

Financial District Charged to a Fault of the Constitution.

Rev. J. C. McFeeters of Philadelphia, Dr. H. H. George and other speakers declared the country's financial troubles were due to the fact that the supreme power of God was not acknowledged in our constitution and all existing political parties were in a state of dissolution, because they were not founded on the firm cornerstone which such acknowledgment would be.

FINED ANOTHER ONE

Mayor Sinclair Got Another Saloonist.

HE SAID HE WAS GUILTY

And the Mayor Gave Him the Minimum Penalty—The Evidence Was in the Form of Liverpool Boys Who Had Been Provided With Liquor—Another Charge.

A man giving his name as Pohner and his business as bartender for Connors, the saloonist, was before Mayor Sinclair last night to tell him why he should not be fined for selling liquor to a minor. The case, as noted in the NEWS REVIEW a few days ago, was on the evidence of three Liverpool boys who had secured beer at the place, one of them saying that he was not drunk, and only got two glasses of beer there, but that was enough to convict, and the man was advised to plead guilty. This he did, and the mayor gave him the minimum fine of $10 and costs amounting to $16.10. As soon as the case was ended Pohner was informed that another charge was against him that of selling liquor on Sunday the date being given as last Sunday. He protested his innocence, loudly, but the mayor could not take that as final, and he was released on bond until Thursday evening when he will be given a hearing.

LOST A FEW TEETH.

A Liverpool Wheelman Ran Down a Boy.

When Louis Weaver, of East Liverpool, was dashing down Main street last night on his bicycle he collided with Teddy Blackmore, a boy. The rider was thrown to the ground, as was young Blackmore, the wheel passing over him. He was not badly hurt, but the hard fall gave him any number of bruises that will serve to remind him of the accident for days to come.
Bystanders quickly picked the boy up, and found that he had fallen on his face a few teeth being knocked out in the accident. Weaver was also hurt, but his injuries did not prevent him leaving the scene when he found the boy was not badly hurt. This is one of a comparatively small number of bicycle accidents this season.

INSTALLED.

Reverend Littell is Now a Full Fledged Pastor.

The Steubenville presbytery of the United Presbyterian church met last night, and installed Reverend Littell the new minister. The impressive ceremonies were witnessed by a large congregation, and were decidedly interesting. After the minister had been declared the pastor, the members of the congregation greeted him cordially, and a short exchange of good wishes for the future was one of the most entertaining features of the evening. A number of East Liverpool people were present.

The Seminary Commencement.

Prominent society people have received invitations to be present at the commencement exercises of the Steubenville seminary, this week.
Among the graduates is Miss Sophia James, of this place, and Miss Pay Hunter is a student. Miss James graduates in the piano course.

Died in the West.

The remains of Mrs. Duncan, who will be remembered by Wellsville people as a resident here several years ago, were brought here from St. Paul where she died on Saturday. Funeral services were held at the home of her sister on Tenth street this morning.

Personal.

Joseph Rauh is the guest of friends in Pittsburgh.

Mrs. Mary Malone and Miss Nellie McDavid have returned from New Cumberland where they have been visiting.

A New Departure.

Popcorn Charlie, the enterprising street merchant who holds forth on the square each evening, wants the public to try his popcorn. It is the best that can be obtained, and when buttered and salted is a luxury within the reach of all. Hot popcorn is always good, but it is never better than after it has passed through the process of the skillful hand of Popcorn Charlie. Don't forget him.

Cure for Headache.

As a remedy for all forms of headache Electric Bitters has proved to be the very best. It effects a permanent cure and the most dreaded habitual sick headaches yield to its influence.
We urge all who are afflicted to procure a bottle, and give this remedy a fair trial. In cases of habitual constipation Electric Bitters cures by giving the needed tone to the bowels, and few cases long resist the use of this medicine. Try it once. Large bottles only 50 cents at Potts' drug store.

This is the whole truth in a (Kola) nut shell. Kola gives strength, and no reaction follows. Chew its essence as found in the Kola gum, and be convinced.

BEEF AND FISH

Give Two Constables Work In Squire Rose's Court Today.

Squire Rose had the following cases today.

M. Brozka versus J. S. Dixon for $80 and interest from May 20. Trial Friday at 1 o'clock. Jane Daley versus William Pilgrim for $8. Dismissed at plaintiff's cost. No cause for action.

Special Constable Harvey Badgeley went to Smith's Ferry to replevin a cow belonging to Harvey Wallace. It wandered across the state line and John R. Blackmore shot it up.

William Grimm, who was fined for shooting fish, swore out warrants for Jeff and Harlan Smith, two witnesses who helped cor-vict them. They are charged with the same offense. Constable Lyon went to Fredericktown after them this morning.

Patrick Kerns, who sued C. Berg for $4 in Squire Manley's court, was given $1.25 judgment this morning.

ALL CLOSED.

The Sanitary Pottery Now Want Higher Wages.

A special from Trenton says that 10 sanitary potteries of that place are closed, and the 500 workmen are deliberating over a new scale of wages.
They will ask an increase averaging 20 per cent on Thursday, and if it is not given will strike. They claim that the sanitary potteries in the West are with them. It's the same old trouble that has unsettled the sanitary industry for some time.

Their State Meeting.

The Ancient Order of Hibernians met in state convention here yesterday evening and this morning, but transacted no business for publication. Delegates present were:

F. McTigue, Patrick J. Lavelle, Cleveland; A. Hennessy; J. F.
Sullivan, Leetonia; F. Rewrk, John Slattery, Harry Hannah, Christopher Connor, Ed Cadigan, William Robertson, Peter A. Gavin, Toronto; P. and T. O'Brien, J. E. Maley, T. Swaney, John McCue, Thomas Carroll, Thomas Maher, Salineville. The next convention will be held in Cleveland, June, '96. Delegates will be selected in county convention ten days before that time.

Killing Jerry's Bill.

SPECIAL TO NEWS REVIEW.
LISBON, June 11.—Judge Taylor was on the bench this morning, and heard a motion to dismiss the appeal taken by J. H. Stums, of East Liverpool, from the decision of the commissioners when he wanted $2,751 for legal printing in some German paper he pretends to publish. Prosecutor Speaker finds the law provides for the trying of such cases the first term after the commissioners so decide, but as the case has been in court for several years he thinks, as does P. M.
Smith who was prosecutor when suit was brought, that it should be thrown out. The bill is an imposition on the public at best.

Lawn Fetes in Plenty.

The Young People's society of the Second Presbyterian church gave a very enjoyable and well attended lawn fete in East End last night and cleared about $25. This evening the Young Ladies Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church, will give a lawn fete at the residence of W. L. Smith, Sixth street. Tomorrow, those who desire a trip will attend a lawn fete at Smith's Ferry, given by the Young People's society of the Presbyterian church. On Thursday evening the Women's Christian Temperance union will hold a lawn fete at the home of J. M. Aten, West End.

Sensational Rumors.

Rumors of a tragedy in the Midway were flying about last night and the story was that a bold, bad man had broken a chair over somebody's head and then paraded down the alley with the back of the chair in his hands. There was in reality no bad man, no tragedy and the wild eyed rumor originated from somebody's vivid imagination further than that an old chair on a porch had fallen to pieces in the alley below, and a man had put the fragments in a cellar nearby.

To Clean the Church.

The Young Woman's Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church will hold a lawn fete on the beautiful grounds at the residence of W. L. Smith, Sixth street, this evening, the proceeds to be devoted to renovating and cleaning the church.
Ice cream and strawberries will be served. You will have a pleasant evening if you go.

Card of Thanks.

I desire to return my most sincere thanks to one and all of the generous friends and acquaintances who gave me their aid and sympathy in the late sad bereavement, consequent upon the death of my beloved relative, Mr.
John Temple. My earnest wish is that the Giver of all good gifts will bless and prosper each one of these friends.

MISS SARAH EWING.

"RUN-DOWN."

"tired out" woman who complains of backache, headache, loss of appetite, extreme lassitude and that "don't care" feeling is pretty sure to be suffering from "Female Weakness," some irregularity or derangement of the special functions of womanhood. Very often womb troubles set the nerves wild with afflict and as a result the woman suffers from sleeplessness, nervousness, nervous prostration, faintness and dizziness, irritability and indigestion. In all cases of irregularity or suspended monthly function and in all those nervous diseases depending upon local causes, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will restore you to perfect health. Instead of the exhaustion and feeling of weight and dragging down in the abdomen, you feel fresh and strong. For young girls who suffer from irregularities, for the hard-working woman who suffers from catarrhal inflammation of the lining membranes causing a constant drain upon the system, there is no prescription used by any physician which can equal in results Dr. Pierce's. For over thirty years Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute of Buffalo, N. Y., has used his "Favorite Prescription" in the diseases of women which had long been his specialty and in fully ninety-eight per cent.
of all cases, it has permanently cured.

Mrs. John M. Conklin, of Patterson, Putnam Co., N. Y., writes: "I am enjoying perfect health and have been since I took your little bottle of Dr.
Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I took five bottles and never expected to feel any better when I commenced taking it, but thank God, I can say that I am glad it reached my home. I had falling of the womb, and flowing caused by miscarriage, and was very weak when I commenced taking your medicines. I was cured by taking five bottles in all—two of the 'Favorite Prescription' and three of the 'Golden Medical Discovery.'"

The Discovery Saved His Life.

Mr. G. Caillouette, druggist, Beavers-ville, Ill., says: "To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with La Grippe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and began its use, and from the first dosed began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold.
We won't keep store or house without it." Get a free trial at T. L. Potts'

"DESPERATION."

The New Game of Cards Which Is Interesting Eastern Society.

"Desperation" is a game of cards that is best described as a continuity of sequences, regardless of suit. It is played with three full packs of 52 cards each, and the most convenient number of players is 12, but eight or ten persons will find it a very delightful way to spend an evening. In a party of ladies and gentlemen the better way is for the one six to challenge the other six and then, sitting in couples at the table, alternating the play.

The first duty is to select a banker, who should also act as umpire for the evening. The banker or dealer should then shuffle the three packs of cards together very thoroughly and count two "nests," of 30 cards each, the one to be known as "ladies' nest," the other as "gentlemen's nest," placing them at opposite ends of the table. Each player then receives a hand of six cards, dealt one at a time. These hands are placed face down directly in front of each player.

The play is from the banker to the left, and each player turns up a card, and the play continues until an ace is turned. The privilege of turning the top card of center nests is taken by the first player of each side. When an ace is turned up, it is placed in the center of the table, and the fun begins. The purpose of the game is to exhaust the center nests, and the game is won by the side exhausting their nest first. The sequences in the center of the table are ace high to deuce, while the side sequences or partner's hand are high or low. So that each partner plays on the center sequences, his or his partner's sequences and his own, in effect playing seven hands in a 12 hand game.

The fun of the game is caused by the penalty connected therewith, which is:
No player is permitted by word, look, sign, motion or suggestion to indicate to the person playing any play or mis-play possible on penalty of forfeiting the play of said player and having the chance of a sequence pass to the next player at table, which would naturally be an opponent.

There is a great amount of sport in this game for a social evening, and it is very popular in the eastern cities. It can be made "progressive" if desired on the same principles as euchre.—St.
Louis Post-Dispatch.
